CW: Adults discussing sexual content with and in the presence of minors. Mentions of SA/rape/abuse. Panic attacks. NSFW and Suggestive art and images.

THIS IS ALSO GOING TO BE IMAGE HEAVY; LOTS OF SCROLLING. SORRY MOBILE USERS.

Intro

Limus (Limustheslime) is a YouTuber, Twitter and Bluesky artist, and moderator of their own Discord server. They are extremely outspoken about the many things they hate or don't 'vibe' with, from media to ships to anthro art. In public, they're seemingly hypervigilant about protecting children from potentially offensive content. However, one look into their server, with children as young as 13-14, shows that they are at the very least a hypocrite who doesn't seem to care about exposing kids to adult themes. Specifically stating wanting this to be a 'safe space' for children / teenagers.

The majority of these logs come from a channel called "fictional-character-simpery." Mind you, all of these channels are readily accessible to everyone, as there is only 1 role the general population of the server has, there are no channels restricted or made to be away from the eyes of literal children. (This will become important later.)

All of the logs showcased here are available for children to see on the server. There's no designated 18+ sections and any inappropriate context within the server is freely available for minors to see. And one of the minors who Limus has heavily interacted with still maintains contact. While Limus did make the server 18+ as of July 16th, 2025, she still interacts with a 14 year old who is mentioned later in the doc.

Horny on Main

First, there's Limus's discussion of horniness around children. In particular, being horny in the 'general' and 'simp' channel despite multiple times yelling at the server to tone it down, yet continued doing it themselves. Reminder that these channels have no age restrictions and children can easily access them.

XENOMORPH QUEEN SLAY

Deathclaws, major enemies in the Fallout series, are mutated Jackson's chameleons. They're largely nonsapient, animalistic, and driven by hunting and reproductive instinct.

Xenomorphs, which Limus makes no secret of being extremely attracted to, are also nonsapient aliens. Like bees, wasps, or ants, they function as a hivemind, their behavior driven by instinct and the urge to serve their queen. Under Limus's own definition ("a dragon, even though it's a fictional animal, is still meant to be an animal"), wanting to sleep with deathclaws and xenomorphs would constitute zoophilia. Also, remember that this is all taking place in a channel where children are welcome and encouraged to be present.

In the words from the film itself:

This person above, with the Cult of the Lamb pfp, is 14 years old. This may be a song lyric, but this isn't appropriate for a 14 year old (who is also a regular in the server) to be commenting on. Why bring up yaoi AT ALL? It shouldn't even be discussed if you're not going to talk about it further. It shouldn't have been brought up, period. Along with SA.

Degrees of Separation

Someone even suggested separating the minors from adult content, so that we stop having things like above happen. Limus and others immediately shot it down. Despite most servers that mix minors and adults do this to keep everyone safe. And while the more strict vetting can still have people slip through the cracks, having to prove your birthdate with official IDs is a lot harder to fake rather than a trust system.

Based on her behavior, Limus believes she can post NSFW pics and have NSFW conversations around minors because she seems to think that as long as she's joking or that they're just innuendos, it's fine. No Limus. It's inappropriate.

The next case in point, posting a very NSFW image even though she says she doesn't like it. You're still posting it for children to see, Limus.

That's because most kids your age don't join groups like this that often, it's good your trying to express yourself online but some people simply don't want to interact with younger people because they view them in a more negative way given what they've both experienced IRL and seen online, and typically younger people are more immature and more sensitive to high profile conversations, especially with content creators they see with stars in there eyes

It feels like Limus and the other members are annoyed by the minor. How is this a "safe space"? Even blaming the minor for "causing drama". And Limus not "wanting to be responsible"? She's the one who wants to curate a server full of adults and minors. She is in charge and IS responsible for what goes on in her server. It's also worth noting that the blaming is coming from a mod who Is Limus's boyfriend.

It's interesting how Limus acknowledges that "they're too young" for this sort of thing. But talking about sex toys and simping for half naked men isn't?

Let's look at another conversation between Limus and the same minor. He has a panic attack and Limus mocks him with a gif from Final Destination, then times him out of the server for a week after he can't calm down:

ppl dont really talk enough abt how exploitative it is, since its hard to put a finger on less like trashy porn (creepy storyboarder not withstanding) and more something like polytechnique where it's just kind of ogling at and somewhat romanticizing the life
the points of trauma themselves become allures hard to explain w/o sounding really pretentious but in the same way tumblr got infamous for romanticizing depression and mental self destruction like trashy porn (creepy storyboarder not withstanding) and more something like we need to talk about how people in the animation industry are friends with and defend people who fetishize things like rape or pedophilia and that discussion can't happen if people just argue that it wouldn't matter even if it was true

Limus also did not seem to punish or care that a 19 year old was discussing rape and adult themes with a 14 year old. Nor did she express any sort of concern for the panicking minor.

Attraction Hypocrisy

As another point, her being hypocritical about being attracted to dragons. Limus is a very vocal critic of anything involving she deems bestiality, which includes feral characters and dragons, regardless of sapience. However, her choice of “fictional simps” says otherwise. The first time she tried to say it was a joke, but later on it was clear it wasn’t.

So much for “supposed to be an animal” and “it's zoophilic to like dragons.” Also, this person was 17 when they joined Limus's server. They are now 18 and are a mod in the server. Why is this okay when Limus said it wasn't?

However, this same artist has reposted Susie and Ralsei porn (Which Limus did not like, but she HAS liked other art by this specific artist.), as well as drawing foot fetish art of Tails from Sonic (who is canonically 8 years old.) for someone else.

She also unfollowed the artist who drew the Noelle picture, drew foot fetish art of Tails, amd reposted Susie/Ralsei porn.

However, her likes of some of their posts remain.

It’s also worth noting that Limus still actively interacts with the minor shown throughout this doc (with the Tails pfp and the COTL pfp on Bluesky. They are the same child.) They are still in her server as well. She's liked their posts on BS, even after the document’s initial release.

The Hazbin fandom is interesting if this is them. I know not all of them are like this but God damn I've had some awful experiences with people in that fandom. This just makes it harder to not dismiss all of them as being bad people even though I know that not all of them are like this.

She even responds to a minor who is asking about the sex toy sponsorship. This person is 14 years old. Why are you, an adult, even talking about this to them as though they weren’t a child?

This minor also regularly comments on Limus's Bluesky posts. They have a Cult of the Lamb pfp (later shown in the doc.)

“Is it because minors?” This person is 14 years old (COTL pfp) Again, why is Limus talking to this child like they are an adult? This is not an appropriate conversation to have with a 14 year old, even if you're saying you won't do the promotion. You shouldn't be discussing this at ALL with any child.

but tbh idk if its stupid but i rlly started watchin tf2 bc of some pedo

Why talk about pedophiles 28 times? It's not appropriate to discuss around minors, even when you condemn them. It shouldn't be brought up whatsoever around children. Same with porn. It's not appropriate. Limus and these other random adults are not their parents, medical professionals, or teachers.

Pokemon

Next is Pokemon, something Limus has publicly condemned as zoophilia. Even if one were to make the argument that the Pokemon Limus is attracted to lean toward anthro (and that Mewtwo is capable of human speech), her selection also includes Vespiquen, an animalistic bee.

Kendrick vs. Drake

As an interesting note, Limus got very upset over the Kendrick vs Drake situation. It's commonly accepted that the point of “Not Like Us” is Kendrick calling Drake out as a pedophile. Sure, it's her server, but it's something that shouldn't be ignored given the situation of this server full of minors being exposed to sexual conversations.

That's not what it's about at all
It's about the protection of an art form
Hip hop is art
And when I art form gets gentrified and flanderized that's bad
Like imagine if a person who was straight as an arrow claimed to be the king of queer art That's what Drake was

Guys I’m not gonna talk about Kendrick and drake
HI 12/18/2024 11:53 PM
There's a really good video by a youtuber named f.d signifier explaining how this beef was absolutely huge for the genre itself if u wanna learn more there's that but nah that shit wasn't a publicity stunt thats all imma say
FAT 12/18/2024 11:54 PM
I love Kendrick lamar
@Limus (CM Punk's Wife) Guys I’m not gonna talk about Kendrick and drake

Yeah idk shit about any of it!
Limus (CM Punk's Wife) 12/18/2024 11:55 PM
Talking about it just makes me upset

ah fuck it

if there's any insentive to care about the beef, its not about two millionares fighting, its about the legacy of the art itself

I think boiling it down to that small of a level really takes out how impactful this beef was, not just for the genre but black culture because one of the cornerstones of blacl culture and art was their hip-hop and drake doesn't have that so when kendrick says "I'm what the culture feeling" thats what he means he's always been much more art focused, and bringing peace among marginalized groups

thats the entirety of TPAB (amazing album gen go listen to it) (edited)

When I say no more about a certain subject, that means no more.

as always, don't use other channels as a replacement for general. It should be obvious already, but I feel like I have to explicitly say it. We will time you out if you do so Why get upset over this to the point of locking a channel down? Again, it's her server, but it's very bizarre to get upset over a pedophile being called out very publicly.

Conclusion

Limus claims that she wants to make a safe space for her audience, which just so happens to include a large number of minors. She claims to have lacked this kind of space growing up, one where she could feel "accepted without judgement," and wants to provide one now. However, even assuming nothing but the best of intentions, Limus is not a parent, medical professional, social worker, or teacher. She's a YouTuber with a Discord server, and her idea of giving minors a safe space is inviting them into a private place where they're encouraged to talk about sex with strange adults. The minor she most interacts with still likes her posts to this day.

As shown in the doc, Limus has been encouraged by others on multiple occasions to keep adult content hidden behind an adult role. Every time, she's refused. She becomes defensive when it's suggested that this isn't healthy or safe.

At best, Limus is misguided and deeply hypocritical. At worst, she knows exactly what she's doing when she invites these children away from the public eye and exposes them to all the sexual kinks she routinely attacks others for. Either way, it's a dangerous situation that can't be allowed to operate in the dark any longer.
